

AUTUMN EVENTS

AT THE MEETING HOUSE EXHIBITION CENTRE IN KENDAL

5th October (2.30-4.30pm)

Ageing Nation

Sonia Mangan on working with older people today to inform the needs of tomorrow. £7 inc afternoon tea.

11th October (2.30-4.30pm)

John Ruskin - the Man

Freddie Harris talks about John Ruskin - poet, artist, critic, social revolutionary and conservationist. £7 inc afternoon tea.

22nd October (10am-4pm)

Apple Day at the Quaker Tapestry

Activities for all ages, apple pressing, games, apple identification and much more! FREE Event.

24th October (10.30am-3pm)

Family Fun Writing Workshop

Join poet Bernard Young for a day of fun with words. Adult £20, Children (0-10 years) FREE accompanied by an adult, Child £10 (11-16 years) including lunch and refreshments during the day.

28th October (7.30-9.30pm)

The Star-Crossed Stone

Cambridge palaeontologist, Dr Ken McNamara, unravels the impact of fossilised sea urchins on the religion and culture of many ancient societies. £5 inc refreshments.

3rd November (2pm-4pm)

Historic British Crewel Work

Join Phillipa Turnbull, specialist in the stitches, techniques and designs of 17th and 18th Century British Crewel Work. £12 inc afternoon tea.

11th November (2.30-4.30pm)

These Houses Hold Secrets

Julian Abraham reveals the efforts made by Dutch Quakers to save the lives of Jewish children and families during the dark years of the Second World War. £7 inc afternoon tea.

12th November (10am-4pm)

Preserving Your Family Heirlooms

Textile conservator Jacqueline Hyman shows how to look after your family heirlooms. £35 inc lunch and refreshments.

15th November (2.30-4.30pm)

Ticket to Ride - a journey along a Quaker Railway Line

Chris Bullard will introduce you to a number of Quakers who helped ensure that railway travel was the most important means of travel for a period of well over a hundred years. £5 inc afternoon tea.

22nd November (2.30-4.30pm)

The Life of Oscar Wilde

Freddie Harris introduces Oscar Wilde who was probably the best self publicist that ever lived - an ideal subject on which to base a tragic play. £7 inc afternoon tea.

24th November (2.30-4.30pm)

Wood matters - Coppicing for the Community

Gareth Thomas reveals how we need to start revaluing woodlands to match the needs of the 21st Century. £5 inc afternoon tea

30th November (7pm-9pm)

The Art of the Violin Maker

Hear about the work of local violin maker and player Carol Klemperer. £7 inc refreshments.

6th December (2pm-4pm)

Designing the Quaker Tapestry

Artist, designer and tutor Bridget Guest gives you an insight into how the Quaker Tapestry was designed and produced. £10 inc afternoon tea.

For further details about each event please visit the website www.quaker-tapestry.co.uk

To book: please telephone 01539 722975, call in or email info@quaker-tapestry.co.uk